Do you find it difficult to talk to people?
Not sure what questions to ask?
Want the building blocks to make you great at reading body language?
Ask the right questions at the right time?
Put the pieces of a puzzle together right in front of your eyes in real time?
Are you ready to advance your interdiction skillset beyond the traffic stop, taking it to the next level?
If you are ready to UP your criminal interdiction GAME, this is the course for YOU!

"I personally attended Chris's class several times and found his information so valuable I implemented it into my investigations. Even in Chris's current position, he is committed to sharing his knowledge willingly to ensure every officer has the skillset to gain every advantage, giving you the information you will need to proactively impact drug-related crimes in a variety of realms."

Here's your opportunity to learn from one of the best. Operation R.U.S.H. instructor Deputy Chief Chris Martin from the Brewer Maine Police Department, is going to help you connect the dots and take your traffic stop, Terry Stop, or consensual encounter to the next level. This course will cover:

- Traffic stops and roadside interviews
- Consensual encounters
- Hotel/motel interdiction
- Conducting criminal debriefings
- Knock and talks
- Opening up the information pipeline
- Strategies for successful investigations
