COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Advanced Street Interview

This course is for patrol officers and detectives to effectively deal with the challenges of any interview. Whether interviewing a complainant, witness, or suspect, officers will learn to effectively interact using positive listening and communication skills. Emphasis will be placed on how to properly manage the interview and set the tone for different scenarios. Practical exercises will reinforce instruction.

Our highly-experienced instructors teach how to:

- Identify common criminal behaviors and signals
- Interview management
- Developing active listening and using open-ended questioning
- Detect deception by analyzing verbal and nonverbal cues
- Developing short-term rapport and conversational skills to extend interview
- Recognizing defense mechanisms and emotional and stress responses
- Ways to overcome denials
- Strategies to manage hostile, emotional, or vulnerable individuals during an interview
- Giving Miranda application, ensure the admissibility of statements, and constitutional requirements
- Effective law enforcement recording

Instructor: Lt. Joseph Pangaro

Lt. Pangaro proudly served his community for 27-years; rising through the ranks from patrol officer, to detective, detective sergeant, and finally, lieutenant.

During that time, he also served as a SWAT team member, a Hostage /Crisis negotiator, lead training instructor, Homeland Security and terrorism liaison, press officer, and a member of the command staff.

He started Pangaro Training in 2010 to bring his knowledge and skills to the men and women of law enforcement across the USA. Pangaro Training currently offers over 51 training programs for patrol, detectives and supervisors. He is the author of 4 books: “The Interview” and “The Investigation” from Blue 360 Media, “The Dangers, Health Risks, and Consequences of Vaping” co-written with Dr. Christopher Bader C.O. and “Securing Your School”, both of these works are available on Amazon.

In addition to writing books, he also writes columns and articles for multiple magazines and is a subject matter expert on school security with Campus safety Magazine and the PassK12 organization.

Lt. Pangaro also hosts two podcasts, “The Blue Heart Webcast” a police-based program and “Hope is NOT a Tactic” a school security show, both can be found on YouTube.
