of “Distribution of a Controlled Substance Resulting in Death” Prosecutions

WHEN

March 26th and 27th , 2026

Anchorage Police Department Regional Academy

3760 West Dimond Boulevard
Anchorage, Alaska

MISSION: This training event is structured to provide law enforcement personnel at all levels with the tactical and strategic skills necessary to investigate distribution resulting in death cases. The instructors and presenters for this symposium will impart real-world experience from multiple disciplines and will provide instruction on the techniques and methodology required to successfully prosecute defendants whose distribution of controlled substances have resulted in overdose deaths. This symposium will provide guidance and information appropriate for law enforcement team members at all levels, including Patrol, Investigative, and Command Staff. The presenters will detail the medical/scientific aspects, investigative tactics, evidentiary practices, and supervisory support necessary to successfully pursue a “Distribution Resulting in Death” case from inception to conclusion.
