COURSE DESCRIPTION: The fentanyl crisis has become one of the most lethal threats facing law enforcement and communities across the country. KILLER HIGH™ delivers a compelling, fast-paced training that gives officers, investigators, and interdiction teams the tools they need to tackle fentanyl head-on. Taught by nationally recognized expert and DEA Task Force Officer Detective Dean “Dino” Cardinale, This one-day course provides a real-world look at fentanyl’s origin, production, distribution, and investigative challenges. Attendees will gain practical skills to safely handle evidence, manage overdose scenes, disrupt trafficking networks, and engage their communities through informed outreach. This is the essential fentanyl course your agency needs—whether you're on the front lines or building prosecutions behind the scenes.

Course Objectives:

- Understand the origin, forms, and extreme potency of fentanyl and its analogs
- Identify trafficking methods, concealment techniques, and distribution trends
- Learn safe evidence handling and field response to avoid accidental exposure
- Conduct overdose death investigations with prosecutorial precision
- Effectively use confidential informants in fentanyl-related cases
- Address the community impact and implement interdiction strategies

- Analyze real-world case studies and fentanyl takedowns
- Educate school administrators and the public on fentanyl threats

Who Should Attend:

Patrol Officers | Narcotics Detectives | Supervisors | Drug Task Force Members | School Resource Officers | Prosecutors | Investigators | Command Staff | Public Safety Educators | Federal, State, and Local Law Enforcement Professionals
