

The Joint Training Initiative
at
South Florida HIDTA
Is Hosting:

BUILDING LEADERSHIP & LEARNING THROUGH CRISIS

September 22, 2026 (Tuesday) Time: 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM (EST)
Deadline Date to Register Online: September 9, 2026

This dynamic course equips leaders with the essential skills to inspire trust, foster collaboration, and empower teams for long-term success. Learn how to create a culture of inclusivity, build strong relationships, and prepare for challenges with confidence and clarity.

In today's unpredictable world, crises demand a calm, decisive, and prepared leader. This course focuses on equipping participants with the tools and mindset to handle high-pressure situations while safeguarding team morale and operational effectiveness.

Key Takeaways:

- ☐ Establish trust and lead with integrity.
- ☐ Cultivate a positive, adaptive organizational culture.
- ☐ Empower teams through effective communication and decision-making.
- ☐ Develop agile and robust crisis response plans.
- ☐ Master the art of rapid, informed decision-making under uncertainty.
- ☐ Foster resilience and teamwork during extreme challenges.

Provider: George Piro, retired Special Agent in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Those Who Should Attend: Law enforcement officers, detectives, and special agents from local, state, federal and tribal agencies.

Location: Weston HIDTA Facility, 3200 Meridian Parkway, Suite 101, Weston, FL 33331

Tuition: Free, however travel costs are the responsibility of the parent agency.

Online Registration: Open your web browser to

<https://www.nhac.org/hidtatraininglecalendar/events/6>

Find the South Florida HIDTA Course, fill in the SFLHIDTA Training Registration and select Complete Registration

Questions concerning registration please contact:

Madelyn Willis: mmwillis@sflhidta.org